CONVICT BUYS WREATH FOR POLICEMAN HE SHOT

BALTIMORE. March 6.—William Howard, a convict now serving a twenty-year term in the Maryland penitentiary, to-day borrowed $5 from Warden Weyler with which he bought a wreath to be placed upon the coffin of ex-Policeman Doyle, of Catonsville. It was, for putting seven bullets into Doyle seventeen years ago that Howard is now in the penitentiary.

Howard, with a companion, had escaped from Westminister jail. Doyle had come upon them in a hayrick and they crawled underneath, the policeman after them. When the officer got to the other side Howard was ready for him and fired seven times. One shot was nearly fatal, but the sturdy policeman recovered. Howard was captured after a desperate fight in Harrisburg and brought back and convicted. To-day he said he wanted to pay tribute to the plucklest man he had ever met.
